

Lair Of The Gloomweaver (Single) release date: 28 October 2022

Brundarkh is a melodic death metal act inspired by dark fantasy stories and founded in late 2020 by South African composer, Heino Brand. Shortly after he was joined by Caleb Bingham of Athanasia and they released their first single, "Wraith Dominion" that also featured a guest solo by Jori Haukio of Mors Principium Est.

"Lair Of The Gloomweaver" is the second single from their upcoming album, "Those Born Of Fire & Shadow". Like with their previous single, "The Dark Tree", this new track takes inspiration from J.R.R. Tolkien's literary work, "The Silmarillion" and explores the creature Ungoliant in all her dark splendour. It is a slow and brooding song that pays homage to influences like Hypocrisy and Morbid Angel.

The track was mixed by Caleb Bingham at Nightmare Sound and mastered by Thomas "Plec" Johansson of The Panic Room.

Previous releases: Haunted Worlds EP (2021).

Concept and art/design by Heino Brand.
